

Summer Reading and Writing Assignment for Students
Entering Honors English 11 at West High

Junior Honors English will focus on American literature. We will study as many major works as we can. To give us a head start, your assignment over the summer is:

1. Read John Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath (1939) before the end of summer. If possible, purchase a copy of the novel so you can write in it and mark important passages. Otherwise, check it out from a library. Online versions or e-book versions are acceptable, but not recommended.

We will look at the novel as a work of literature, as a historical document (most of the events depicted actually occurred and Steinbeck observed them as a reporter for the San Francisco Examiner), and as an instrument to help us explore our own experience and values.

2. Please complete the book by the first day of class. Write a paper that is one to two pages, typed, dealing with one of the topics below. Please use MLA format. Your paper is due on the first day of class.

- * Why does Steinbeck use such unsophisticated protagonists and language?
- * What importance does Steinbeck give to the family?
- * The effectiveness of anger - Is there a better way?
- * The relationship between the roles of men and women
- * Biblical allusions/parallels - Why does Steinbeck use them? (If you don't know Bible stories or characters, don't worry. We'll discuss them together.)
- * How do Steinbeck, society, you define sin and virtue?
- * Historical aspects of the 1930s (Hoovervilles, Dust Bowl, Red Scare, Great Depression, etc.)
- * Alternating narrative (Joad) chapters and intercalary (short, generic) chapters

Arrange to read this powerful and moving novel in a comfortable place. Pace yourself so you can become fully involved in it, rather than be concerned with the number of pages. Find out why The Grapes of Wrath is often considered the Great American Novel.

See you in August!

Julie Adams/ Denise Pfeiffer/ Marcie Thompson/ Mindy Thompson

Course Overview

Please review the following list of works with your parents. Some texts may contain mature situations and/or language. If you have any questions or comments please contact the teacher. (Note: This is the long list. We may not read all these texts, and different classes may study different selections.)

Novels and plays we may read together as a class:

The Grapes of Wrath , Steinbeck	The Scarlet Letter , Hawthorne
The Crucible , Miller	King Lear , Shakespeare
The Adventures of Huck Finn , Twain	Ethan Frome , Wharton
The Great Gatsby , Fitzgerald	Walden , Henry David Thoreau

Personal choice novels (You may be asked to choose one of these texts for independent reading.)

Fools Crow , Welch	Laughing Boy , La Farge
The Virginian , Wister	Tracks , Erdrich
Love Medicine , Erdrich	Montana 1948 , Watson
Bless Me, Ultima , Anaya	All the Pretty Horses , McCarthy
My Antonia , Cather	The Last of the Mohicans , Cooper
A Thief of Time , Hillerman	Ceremony , Silko
Angle of Repose , Stegner	The Color Purple , Walker
Catcher in the Rye , Salinger	The Help , Kathryn Stockett

Short stories, essays and nonfiction selections, and poetry from our textbooks:

Prentice Hall Literature

Braided Lives, Anthology of Multicultural American Writing

Coming of Age, Short Stories About Youth and Adolescence

